CobbleSoft Set to Break the Mold in San Diego

Rochester, New York Oct 24th 2002: CobbleSoft International Ltd. today announced plans to publicly unveil an entirely new, superior support solution at the Oracle Applications Users Group fall conference in San Diego. Deliberately choosing the stage of North America's largest Oracle Applications users conference for product launch, CobbleSoft are positioned to address the needs of enterprises requiring process support as they work through complex implementations and upgrades. In breaking the mold cast by more established products, they can finally offer users around the globe a tangible, low-cost solution 100% compatible with existing architecture.

CobbleSoft will be providing demonstrations at booth #415 at the San Diego Convention Center, 27th – 30th October.
